

MUSIC LICENSING – SMASHSONGS

Smashsongs is a website which gives you the power to license music, & lyrics directly to TV, Film, media and performing artists. We also let you sell your music directly to your fans.

The best part is you get paid instantly and directly. Smashsongs takes no commissions, meaning you end up with 100% of all profits made from selling and licensing your music or lyrics.

Smashsongs is very easy to use. We focus on what is really important to members, and that is an easy way to license songs and sell music directly. Once you are a member, you will be able to start uploading your music and lyrics directly onto your profile page and into our Music Library buyer search.

You can sell your music directly to your fans and also upload music for potential song licensing opportunities.

Using Smashsongs, you can license music to both media and other performers. While you are free to use your own music contracts, we also provide members with three standard industry contracts which you are able to use when dealing with buyers.
